

Singathon 2005 Registration Form

Pass It Around! invites you, your family and friends to sing in our 7th annual Singathon Benefit for Homeless People. Last year's Singathon raised $14,170, and Pass It Around! gave $4,251 to the Marian Residence for Women in S.F., $4,251 to Raphael House (long term shelter for homeless families in S.F.), and $4,251 to Plowshares Homeless Services Center in Ukiah, CA. This year's Singathon will benefit the Youth Emergency Assistance Hostel in Berkeley and the Marian Residence for Women in S.F.

The Singathon is like a Walkathon or Bikeathon, except that participants challenge themselves to learn and perform 30 beautiful songs rather than to master an athletic feat. Training is fun: just listen to the practice tape that contains all 30 songs (mostly rounds), sing with it and attend rehearsals. (Pass It Around! will send you a practice tape and fundraising materials in August.)

Between August and December, singers raise money by asking friends, colleagues, neighbors and family members to become financial sponsors. Pass It Around! asks each singer to raise $1,000, but you are welcome to participate even if you raise no money at all: vocal and emotional support are important too! 90% of the money raised will be divided among our beneficiary organizations; Pass It Around! will keep 10% to defray the costs of producing Singathon 2005. The Pass It Around! singers have become good fundraisers, and we will help you write a thoughtful letter to your friends.

On Sunday, December 11, we'll present our concert. Kay Eskenazi will direct our rehearsals and concert.

For more information, contact Kay at 415/647-9642, #2 or singathon@PassItAround.org. Or visit <http://PassItAround.org/programs.html#singathon>

The fee to participate in Singathon 2005 is $50
(plus $27 to purchase Pass It Around! Rounds from the Soul of a World, if you don't already own it).
